Your New Perk Pass Is on the Way

Important news for County and Superior Court employees who ride transit: Your new Perk Pass will be mailed soon to your home address. Be sure to keep an eye out for it.

If you've moved within the last year, you'll need to update your home address with the Rideshare Office to ensure that you receive your pass.

Even if you only occasionally ride the bus, you'll need an updated Perk Pass. It allows you to pre-load transit fares—whether monthly passes or per-ride costs—which are automatically deducted when you tap the card to board.

If you have questions, call the Rideshare Office at 714.834.7600.

Save While You Support Local Businesses

Doing some holiday shopping and celebrating in Santa Ana? You can get special discounts with the Eat Shop Play program that aims to support businesses along the construction zone for the OC Streetcar.

Find a map along with details at octa.net/eatshopplay—or look for the Eat Shop Play logo decal (pictured below) outside of participating merchants.

Feeling the Sting of High Gas Prices?

Some good news: The State of California is sending money directly to millions of residents to help with rising costs and high gas prices.

Dubbed the Middle Class Tax Refund (MCTR), it's a one-time payment of $200 to $1,050. Those eligible will automatically receive a payment via check or direct deposit. Payments started in October and are expected to be issued through January 2023.

For more information and to find out if you're eligible for the refund, visit taxrefund.ca.gov or call 800.542.9332.

Plus, More Ways to Save On Gas...

If you rideshare, you're already enjoying savings at the pumps by driving less often. A few other ways you can save:

Compare prices. Apps like gasbuddy.com can show local prices, so you don't have to burn gas driving around searching for the lowest prices at the pumps.

If you already carpool, add another person. The more people splitting driving duties, the more each of you save on gas. The Rideshare Office can help you find potential carpoolers, or visit ridematch.info for a list of people who live near you and work a similar schedule.

Add transit to the mix. Riding the bus or rail can be an affordable alternative to driving. Transit fares aren't affected by high gas prices (and when you pay for fares using pre-tax dollars via payroll deduction, you can save even more).

Drive smarter. Studies have shown that personal driving habits are the single biggest factor affecting vehicle fuel consumption, according to the AAA.

Keeping your car maintained, not accelerating quickly, combining trips and other good habits can add up in the long run to lower gas use.

Go green. If you're in the market for a car, consider an electric vehicle. That way, the price of gas won't be an issue at all.

California's Clean Vehicle Rebate Program may be able to save you up to $7,000 off the cost to lease or buy an EV. The County also offers a $100 incentive when you buy or lease an electric car or truck.
